MAX JENNINGS TO SPEAK

Our next meeting will be January 21 at Kentucky Road Church in Mexico, MO. Our speaker will be Max Jennings from Columbia, MO. Max is from Oblong, IL, and that unusual name is unique, as there no other town named that in the world. Max has a lot of education, as he graduated from Vincennes University, then to Indiana State University where he graduated, then felt the call to preach, so he enrolled in St Louis Christian College where he graduated in 1969. He has held ministries in several Churches in Southern Illinois and Missouri before coming to Columbia where he preached at Westside Christian, then as the name and location changed, Forum Christian. He is presently working with the Discovery Church in northeast Columbia. He has three children and at least nine grandchildren. I will let you come to the next meeting and hear from him about the children and grandchildren. We look forward to seeing you at our January meeting at Kentucky Road Church.

CMCE NEWS AND NOTES FROM RAYMOND IMAN

I am excited with the news from the Church plant down in southeast Missouri. It should be "Church plants" I suppose, as that is what is happening. Mark Kummer reported that the Church in Dexter is doing fine and averaging about 70 and this is wonderful! The Church in Poplar Bluff which had started and sort of fizzled, is now going again. Darin Kleeman is preaching at both Churches for the time being and we shall see what happens as time goes on. Starting Churches is what we are all about, and it is good to see this happening. This is an area of Missouri with very few Churches and this is about to change. We at CMCE are part of the reason change is coming. You are encouraged to go to: www.milecitychristian.com, which is the web site of the new Church, and there you can see what they are doing to spread the Gospel to all people.

DECEMBER MEETING

CMCE held their regular December meeting on the second Monday evening, not the third as we have done for the past several years. This was held at Parkview Christian Church in Centralia.

Another report was given by Don Stoll from the Christian House in Columbia. He stated that they had their annual Christmas banquet recently and had about 250 in attendance. An anonymous donor paid for the banquet and this was greatly appreciated. As you may know, they reach out to the students from other countries as a means of sending the Gospel to some places we cannot reach. Another reason it is good to send these students back home to preach the Gospel is that they can better reach their countries than we from the US can do.

Walker Franke was our speaker - he is the son of the Franke who spoke last month. He spoke on Paul and Barnabas and their disagreement concerning John Mark and focusing on how reconciliation can be brought about when there is disagreement. Division is rampant among "Christian" churches and is a terrible witness to the rest of the world as how "Christians" get along with each other. The key he gave on how to avoid this division or to heal the fracture is Galatians 1:21 - be reconciled out of love.

FORMER SCC MINISTER PENS BOOK

Former Southside Christian Church minister, Dan Sites, has recently authored a devotional book. Saturday Posts from Daniel's Den is a collection of Facebook posts that Dan has written over the past few years. As his book is self-published, it is available only from him at this time.

If anyone would be interested in obtaining a copy of Dan's book, he may be contacted at 573.582.2074 or by email at <mailto:dansites47@gmail.com>.

Dan was the preacher at SCC from 1978 through 1993 and then returned as part-time associate minister in 2011, retiring from SCC in 2017. He continues to preach as needed on a fill-in basis. Dan has twice served as the president of the Missouri Christian Convention and still serves as the convention's historian and registrar.
